THE EMPRESS A SKATER.

Empress Augusta Victoria, of Germany, is an ardent lover of ice skating and recently took to roller skates. One morning while cantering through the Thiergarten, accompanied by her husband and their children, she saw a little boy enjoying himself with roller skates. Her majesty had never before seen these articles. An attendant asked the boy regarding the skates, and learned that they were of American manufacture. That same day an order was given by her majesty for a dozen pairs, assorted sizes, and now Augusta Victoria has added another to her list of accomplishments.

THE DOCTORS DISAGREE.

Dr. Rolland B. Gray, a New York physician, who has practiced near Central Park for forty years, is out in a statement in which he declares that children contract malaria in the park. Dr. Gray declares that the park is a regular death-trap for sleeping infants. Recently, he says, he has had two cases which have convinced him, beyond a doubt, of the truth of his belief. The symptoms have been precisely the same, and death has ensued in both cases. The doctor beseeches people to keep their children out of the park, if they desire to have them healthy and to save their lives. Dr. Crosby of the Board of Health and other equally prominent physicians denounce the statement as being absurd.

LONDON JOURNALISM "INVADED."

Miss Jessie Trimble has been placed in charge of the woman's department of the Daily Express, one of the London papers operated by Pearson, or cheap magazine fame. Miss Trimble is a native of Chattanooga, received her elementary training on the Commercial Gazette and Commercial Tribune, of Cincinnati, where she did work of notable ability. Later she became identified with the Chicago Record, and her covering of the World's Fair for that paper broadened her wonderfully and gave her style a cosmopolitan character which has won for her the envious position she now occupies in English journalism. It is an unusual thing for American writers to gain such prominence on British newspapers on account of the rigid rules by which the newspaper world is governed on the other side, and which differ so widely from the go ahead character of American journalism. The elevation which has been accorded Miss Trimble is, therefore, all the more remarkable.

CHICAGO'S THOUSANDS OF DEAD LETTERS.

Postmaster Coyne of Chicago says that about 10,000 letters of local origin for local delivery are sent to the dead letter office from the Chicago postoffice every month because of defective addresses and the failure of the writers to have their return cards on the envelopes.
